Municipal Council.

TURSDAY, Feb. 11, 1868.

The Council met at half-past 7 o'clock. His Worship the Mayor in the chair. Present Councillors Lawis, Gibbs, McKay and Allat. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted.

Communications from N I Neustadt, Sec. retary of the Spring Ridge Water Works Company, giving notice of excavations on Johnson and Langley streets were read, and on motion received and ordered to be placed on file and the Street Committee requested to attend to the matter.

A communication from L Lowenberg, pro posing to pay one half the expense of repairing the staircase on the orner of Government and Humboldi Streets, if the Council would appropriate the balance, the whole cost not to exceed $22.

Councillor Gibbs moved that the communication be received and the proposal accepted, and the work be done under the supervision of the Street Committee. Councillor Allat seconded.

The Mayor refused to put the motion as being out of order. A long discussion ensued, which resulted in no action being taken by the Council in the matter.

Councillor Lewis called the attention of the Council to the new-laid drain at the corner of Government and Fort streets, stating that the recent rains had washed away many of the stones from the gutter, and that it required immediate attention.

On motion the Clerk was instructed to notify Willis Bond that he must repair the samo immediately.

A communication from Mr Raymer, acking permission to lay a plank crossing. Permission granted, subject to the supervision of the Street Committee.

A communication from Willis Bond, asking permission to lay a drain from Trounce Alley to Yates street. Permission was given, subject to the supervision of the Street Com-

Councillor Lewis moved that the money collected on account of the fire insurance rates be paid over to the fire companies. Seconded by Councillor McKay and carried.

Councillor Lewis, pursuant to notice, moved that the Finance Committee be authorised to get the blank forms recently provided for the Council bound, for the preservation of the counterfoils. The Mayor refused to entertain the motion on the ground that he had ruled the motion relating to the appropriation of money for stairs out of order. Another discussion followed, resulting in no action being taken on the motion.

His Worship called the attention of the Street Committee to the bad state of the sidewalks through the city.

Council adjourned to meet on Tuesday

Institute for literary productions on Beacon Hill Scenery and Original Conundrum have brought forward a considerable number of communications, bearing the superscription of Original Conundrum, which have already been placed in the box, showing thus early the interest felt in the matter. Doubtless shouls of contributors of original commundrums will come in before the time closes, and a very amusing evening, brimful of fun, may be anticipated on the night of opening, for we have still in our midst numbers whose wit and humor will make them very apt contributors With regard to the contest for the literary production on Beacon Hill scenery, we hear of some who are prepared and others who are preparing. HORSE-BREAKING ON THE RARRY SYSTEM. We hear that Mr Bartholomew is going to give two lectures and exhibitions of the Rarey system. He is well posted in this business and has had great experience in the particular system. In order to suit the convenience of business men he has appointed Saturday next for his first lecture, and will illustrate the principle on an unbroken mare lent for the occasion by a gentleman of this town. Mr Bartholomew has placed his fee at a very low rate, and his agent, Mr Anderson, will call for the names of subscribers in the course of to-day. Before incurring the expense and risk attendant on such exhibitions Bartholomew wants a certain guarantee, and we believe he will get it.

GRAPPLING FOR A MISSING MAN. - Perons were engaged yesterday with grapples in James Bay, near the bridge, for the body of the lunatic William Black, who has been missing for several days and is believed to have drowned himself. On Saturday night, about half-past ten o'clock, cries were heard proceeding from James Bay bridge, and a man's voice was heard distinctly twice imploring some other person not to throw him over the bridge. FROM BURRARD INLET-The steamer Isabel, Capt Pamphlet, arrived from Burrard Inlet yesterday morning, bringing one passenger and a letter express from the lower river, The Isabel started on Monday with the ship Trebolgan, laden with 900,000 feet lumber and spars for Shanghai, but meeting with rough weather was compelled to cast her off in the Gulf of Georgia. Rain was falling at the Inlet and a thaw had set down. Loading at the mills of Capt Stamp were the ship Dorsetsbire and schooner Levi Stevens.

ST. VALENTINE'S BALL-Miss Sophia Hill announces a ball, on St. Valentine's evening at the Royal Hotel. The occasion is rendered doubly interesting by the fact that the present is Leap year. The fair ones who may attend the ball should not forget their prerogative nor neglect their opportunities.

On Tuesday news was received from Perts land that the Columbia river was still frozen 10 miles below St. Helen's, but that the Willamette river and slough were open. In a short time we shall probably hear of the ice being entirely gone as far as Portland.

As it is they will both sink, which in my opinion is to be deplored. Unless we were going to give up Canada, I should look upon the loss of Vancouver Island as a dire calamity for us.

LETTER.

DOWNING STREET, August 13, 1867. SIR-I am directed by the Doke of Buckingham and Chandos to acknowlege your letter of the 9th instant, and to state that his Grace has not failed duly to consider the previous letter of the 26th ultimo, signed by yourself and some other gentlemen, relative to the seat of Government for the Colony of British Columbia. I am desired to acquaint you that the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos is quite sensible of the importance of the subject, but that it is impossible for him adopt any conclusion on it until he shall have received a report on the question from the Governor.

Under these circumstances, it would not be worth while to give a deputation the trouble of calling on the subject. I am to request you to be good enough to make known the contents of this letter to the other gentlemen who took part in your communication.

ST. JAMES SQUARE, 7 August 16th, 1867.

Mr Lord Duke—I beg to acknow-ledge the receipt of Mr. Elliot's letter of the 13th, the contents of which I have communicated to the other gentlemen who addressed your Grace on the 25th ultimo, as well as to Sir Edmund Head and the gentlemen who joined in the memorial of that date.

I have also informed Mr. Graves, the Member for Liverpool, and the other gentlemen who intended to join a deputation, that their services will not be required. Mr. Elliott remarks that it is imposthe question shall have been received from the Governor.

This resolution is both reasonable and proper, and my only object in adverting to it is to state that neither myself nor any of the gentlemen moving in the matter desired or expected that your Grace

LETTER FROM MR. SPROAT TO THE SECRE-TARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES. LONDON, September 7, 1867.

My LORD DUKE -On behalf of the memorialists who have addressed your Grace on the subject of the selection of a capital for British Columbia—for whom Mr D. Fraser, of 33 St. James Square, and I act as Honorary Secretaries-I am asked to refer to a paragraph in Mr. Fraser's letter to your Grace, dated the 9th August, as that gentleman is at present absent from London. In the paragraph referred to, it is stated that Her Majesty's ship Malacca remained for one night aground. I beg to mention that an account of the accident published in the colony, received Mr. Fraser's letter was written. varies from the statement in his letter to this extent, viz. that the Malacca passed a night at anchor, instead of aground, as appears from the enclosed slip from a Victoria newspaper.

However the ship may have passed the night — whether aground where she stranded, or at anchor in deep water—the inference which was drawn from the accilent was just and correct. Either position of the ship would justify the same inference, viz.: that the approach to Fraser River is dangerous to such vessels But, nevertheless, it is considered proper in caudour to acquaint your Grace will this discrepancy of detail, slight though it Direct from the old established Firm of G. "THE MALACCA ON THE SAND HEADS.
On leaving Fraser River early on Tuesday, H. M. S. Malacca, with Governor Seymour on board, took the ground on the Sand Heads and remained hard and fast until 31 o'clock the same afternoon when the steamer Enterprise, on her way to New We tminster, discovered the Ma-lacca's condition and went to her assistance. The Enterprise took the Malacea's anchors and dropped them in mid channel—at high tide—which occurred about 8 o'clock. The big ship was kedged into deep water and anchored for the night, and in the morning came on to Esquimalt: We are glad to learn that the Malacca has sustained no injury; but it is painful to think what might have been the consequence had she remained on the Sauds yesterday, when a high wind prevailed. The Westminster papers attribute bethe accident to the abreence of a the black buoy, and call for frequent supervision of the buoys; but if the channel through the Sand Heads were fenced with buoys, they would furnish no safeguard against accidents of the kind. The sands are continually changing, and buoys that would mark the channel to day would serve but to mislead the mariner ten days subsequently. Fraser River is no place for large vessels."

[It was suggested to the Colonial Office, that an opportunity might, with advantage, be afforded to the memorialists to peruse, an if necessary to comment upon the Governor's total memorialists. The memorial is to peruse, and if necessary to comment upon the Governor's total memorialists.

They specially mention this, remembering that your Grace's predecessor in office, the Duke of Newcastle, informed several of the present memorialists who composed a deputation which waited upon the Secretary for the Colonies in reference to questions connected with the Union of Vancouver Island and British Columbia, that they came too late; and that if persons in England really interested in the Colony were themselves apathetic or dilatory, the Colonial Office could not be blamed for acting on the information might be imperfect and partial.

Physical Education may be considcred as a process for training the different parts of our corporeal system to their highest state of attainab'e perfection, while moral and intellectual education amends the condition of the brain and gives vigor to thought and mental action. We all know and recognise the truth of the old adage mens sana in corpore sans as to how much the state of the body influences that of the mind; but notwithstanding this, Physical Education has not until recently taken that place which its value as a science fairly entitles it to. Still, field exercises such as football, quoits, cricket, &c., have to a certain extent conduced towards this, but it is only of late years that systematic training in the shape of gymnastic exercises, based upon correct anatomical knowledge and high physiology, have been established. We have been in England much indebted to Kingsley and the author of 'Tom Brown's School Days,' or what is called the 'muscular christianity' school, for popularly influencing public opinion as to the importance of Physical Education to the welfare of the human body. 'Health is the vital principle of bliss, and exercise of health.' The salutary effect of a well applied system of gymnastics in developing muscular power and generally improving health it is scarcely possible to overrate. While everyone may derive advantage from these exercises, systematically and judiciously arranged, it is of course with the young and the pliant that the greatest changes can be wrought. At the same time it is unnecessary to state that as a mere amusement or exhibition of strength it may be carried to excess and attended by serious consequences, but that the success of them will depend on the way they are conducted; and without wishing to make anyone a gymnast, scientific principles can apply special gymnastic practices to meet special defects in physical development and remedy many local debilities, giving stamina and expanding powers. For some years past gymnasia have been attached to all garrisons at home and abroad, and in reporting on the result of four years' experience in a late 'Army Sanitary Report,' it is stated that 'after a course of such regulated exercise the men came out with much increased physical proportions, able to go through feats of strength and vgility; and such training may be considered highly conducive to strength, health and activity, when conducted with system and care.' It is also stated 'that on trained soldiers the effect of gymnastic exercises is to increase largely the girth of the chest and of the arms and legs, and in some cases also, even in grown men, the height increases. The result of four weeks' training on three companies of the Scotch Fusilier Guards is convincing as to the utility of a well organ. ed and systematic round of physical exercises, the average increase being

While in the case of twelve sergeants, all about the age of 23, who were under training for five months with the object of passing out as instructors, the amount of development in three cases picked out haphazard was:

These figures show in a graphic manner the latent capacity that exists for physical development, and also the power of practice and system to draw forth that capacity and place it at the disposal of its possessor. The uniform rate of expansion of chest shows more strongly than any argument can do the value of the science, while the development of muscle in the upper and fore arm indicate the vast gain in nervous power and that firmness and consistency which tell of the highest form of physical existence. These exercises tell in regard to men, but in

United States.

NEW York, Feb 3 .- It is reported that the February statement of the debt shows an increase of nearly $2, 000,000, owing to a decrease in the revenue.

In the House, Robinson asked leave to introduce a resolution asking the reason why Naglee and other American citizens are imprisoned in Ireland, and requesting the President to insticases, and if the facts recited are found rue, to demand an immediate release of the persons convicted for acts committed in the United States. If the demands are refused, then to order the arrest and detention of any subjects of Great Britain found within the jurisdiction of the United States and to withdraw all intercourse with England. Resoludrawing the representative clause and directing the President to report the facts to Congress. After considerable objection being made, the introducer of the resolution (Robinson) moved the suspension of the rules, which was agreed to, and the resolutions were then introduced. Bingham thought the resolutions placed the issues of war or peace in the hands of the President, as it authorized the President to demand the unconditional release of certain persons. He was willing to vindicate the sovereignty of the American people, but he was unwilling to invest the President with a general power demanding immediate and unconditional release of American citizens charged with crime. The House had no information of the prisoners whose release was demanded or who have been detained for acts not committed on the soil of Great Britain. After a lengthy debate, the resolutions were referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 3.-A colored delegate offered a resolution declaring as the belief of the Convention that no confiscation act should be passed by Congress, and that the only way for the landless to obtain land is by purchase.

A white delegate offered a resolution that the investments of estates of infants and unmarried women by administration and executors in Confederate securities be recoverable in law money. A bitter de-bate followed. The tone of the Convention is growing more conservative.

A Times' special says it is ascertained that the President actually issued an order to Gen. Grant, forbidding him to obey orders received from the Scoretary of War. Grant declined to obey, where upon a spicy correspondence ensued, which lasted two weeks. It covers not only the matter named but the charge the President that Grant shows duplicity in his action in Daving the War Department. This correspondence is official and will probably be published.

LIFE DEPARTMENT

This Institution accepts proposals at the rates of premium applicable to Europe, which on examination will be found more advantageous than those charged by other loftless having Agencies here. It unlies all the advantages of a Mutual Association with the security of a Proprietary Company. The Participation Branch is conducted by the Proprietors of the Company for a charge of 10 per cent. on the premiums, wittoot any other deduction whatever. Thus too assured only the profit wirmout THE LIABILITY of the Mutual System.

The participation in profits has been most liberal; Should claims arise before the next investigation, a prospective bonus of nearly 1½ per cent. is allotted

> LONDON. Established 1782.

For Insuring every kind of Property in all parts of the World from Less or Damage by Fire.

THE PROMPTITUDE AND LIBERALITY WITH WHICH Its enga sments are always met by this Company are well known, and the impo-tance of its relations with the public may be estimated from the fact that since its establishment, it has paid more than Eight Millions Storling in discharge of claims for Losses by Fire.

The security offered to the public by the Phonix Office is unlimited, comprising in addition to the large invested capital of the Company the whole fortunes of numerous proprietors, composed of some of the most opulent merchants and others in the United Kingdom. An unal and short time insurances are effected upon all kinds of property in Vascouver Island and Britis Columbia on the most flavorable terms.

J. C. Ayer, & O. OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.
Having inherited a Serofulous Infection, I have suffered from it. in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from anything. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that anything you made must be good.
I sent to Cinciunati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advice, in small doses of a tenspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scalp, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well belief told you to be one of a support of the ago,

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass may other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its strituse. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cares of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs.
As all know the dreadin fatality of these disorders,
and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the curse which have won so strongly upon the
